Loan Calculation Worksheet

Calculate what you will need to borrow under the Federal Direct Loan Program. The following are examples of the expenses a typical student incurs. To avoid over borrowing, only request loan funds for expenses you actually need.

Tuition & Fees

$ _____

Idaho Resident = $100/credit, Out-of-State Resident = $280/credit.

EXAMPLE: $100 per credit, multiplied by 12 credits per semester, multiplied by 2 semesters = $2400

Tuition rates are estimates only and are subject to change, please calculate only for the number of semesters you plan to attend.

(Plus)

Books and Supplies:

$ _____

Please refer to Bookstore pricing for your classes in the semesters you plan to attend.

(Plus)

Room and Board:

$ _____

Include only your share of housing and food costs (use monthly cost, multiplied by 4 months per semester, multiplied by the number of semesters you will attend.)

(Plus)

Transportation:

$ _____

Estimated cost of travelling to and from school only.

(Plus)

Miscellaneous Educational Expenses:

$ _____

Other costs directly related to attending school.

(Plus)

Dependent Care Expenses:

$ _____

Estimated dependent care costs only for children under 12 years of age and only if NOT paid by another agency.

(Minus)

Subtract Financial Aid and All Other Sources of Aid:

$ _____

(Federal grants, work study, scholarships, student loans, Veteran's Benefits, Vocational Rehabilitation, Employer Benefits, any other educational assistance received.)

TOTAL PLUS LOAN AMOUNT REQUESTED:

$ _____

NOTE: PLUS Loan amounts cannot exceed your student's Cost of Attendance Budget (please refer to your student's award notification) less all other sources of aid/assistance in each award year. Federal PLUS Loan limits may be further limited by your Cost of Attendance Budget or the availability of other sources of financial aid:
